CALL FOR MANUSCRIPTS

Reviving its more than seventy-year-old history, Africa resumes publication with a view to providing Africanists with an interdisciplinary venue for in-depth discussion in all areas of the humanities and social sciences. Africa is now a double-blind peer-reviewed half-yearly journal, hosting contributions in Italian, English and French. The Editorial Board encourages submissions on a wide range of topics and from different theoretical perspectives and methodological approaches. Published articles will invariably be the result of rigorous analysis and empirically grounded research.

The journal also calls for the sustained contribution of Africa-based scholars, whose voices are frequently silenced due to a lack of adequate publishing opportunities. One of the driving ambitions of Africa is to challenge this imbalance.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Editorial Policy

All articles submitted to Africa must be original work that has not been previously published and is not currently being considered for any other publication. All submissions to go through a double blind peer-review process. The article is first read in-house by an editor. If the submission meets Africa's style, content, and quality requirements, the Editorial Board sends it to two referees who are experts in the relevant field of research. The Editorial Board may consult a third referee.

To ensure publication, authors must be available to respond to comments, make revisions, and review page proofs.

Manuscript Preparation

Articles should be submitted in a soft copy version (MSWord for Windows, or in an MSWord compatible format), with a brief biographical statement by the author (not exceeding 100 words).

Structure

Your manuscript should be compiled in the following order:

- Title: keep it short and plainly descriptive;
- Author details: please include author's full name, affiliation and email address;
- Abstract: written in English, not exceeding 150 words;
- Keywords: provide 3 to 5 suitable keywords in English;
- Main text.

Word Limits

Do not exceed 8,000 words.

Style Guidelines

Quotations: enter an empty line before and after quotations longer than 4 lines. In case of ellipsis in quotations, use three full points in square brackets [...].

Footnotes: cross references superscript in text before punctuation.

Foreign words and phrases: italicized except when naturalized.

Tables: they should be labelled chronologically as Table 1, 2, 3, etc., and placed in the text. The print format is 17cm x 24cm, and no cross references must be included in tables.

Images: all images must be minimum 300 dpi at planned publication size (max 15 cm). Images, graphics, and maps should be labelled as Figure 1, 2, 3, etc., and placed in the text along with a caption.
